The Lady Swimmer of England.

From the London Telegraph.

Miss Beckwith accomplished the task yesterday of swimming twenty miles in the Thames, and it was stated that the feat was not performed for a wager, but to encourage ladies in the art of natation. The start from Westminster was fixed for noon, but it did not take place until twenty six minutes later, by which time several thousand spectators had gathered on the bridge and the Victoria Embankment. As soon as the young lady, attired in an orange colored costume, appeared on the steamer which was to accompany her, she was greeted with cheers, and the cheering was repeated when she dived into the water.

She was followed on the journey by a boat containing Professor Beckwith and his son Willie, the champion of London.

She swam in the middle of the stream with a long, powerful breast stroke, and reached Lambeth Bridge in nine minutes. Battersea Bridge was passed in thirty four minutes, and Chelsea in forty seven minutes, while the distance covered in the first hour was about three and a quarter miles. Going merrily along, the swimmer was off Waddworth in one hour and fifteen minutes, and Putney, five and half miles from home, in one hour and thirty six minutes. She continued the same measured stroke, and in two hours and nine minutes passed Hammersmith Bridge, where a large crowd encouraged her efforts with a cheer. The ship at Mortlake being reached, nearly half the journey was performed in a little less than three hours. Kew Bridge, eleven miles, was shot under in three hours and twenty eight minutes from the start, and then for the first time some refreshment was partaken of. At five o'clock

Richmond was sighted, and a short distance beyond this pleasant resort a turn was made for home, the young lady not exhibiting the slightest symptoms of fatigue. The journey back to Barker's Ride, Mortlake, where the twenty miles were completed, was accomplished without mishap, and Miss Beckwith, far from being exhausted, was taken into the steamer amid hearty manifestations of satisfaction, having been in the water six hours and twenty five seconds.

JUDGE DODD, of Indiana, was in markable for his wit as well as other talents. At one place where he attended court he was not pleased with his entertainment at the tavern. On the first day of his arrival a hog, under the name of pig, had been cooked whole and laid on the table. No person attacked it. It was brought the next day, and the next, and treated with the same respect, and it was on the table on the day on which the court adjourned.

As the party finished dinner Judge

Dodd rose from the table, and, in a sober manner, thus addressed the clerk. "Mr. Clerk, dismiss that hog on my recognition until the first day of the next court. He has attended so faithfully during the present term that I don't think it will be necessary to take any security."

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Macon and DeWitt counties, comprising the 10th Senatorial District, are requested to send delegations to the National and Representative Convention, to be held at Boston, on Aug. 10.

Tuesday, Aug. 8th, 1878.

At one o'clock p.m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Senator and two candidates for Representatives. The number of delegates to which each county will be entitled will be as follows:

Macon, 10.

DeWitt, 1.

Total, 11.

Two delegations, consisting of one from each county.

The State says that a Democrat "cannot not be a temperance man."

The Prohibition organ held the convention that met at the court house yesterday, at the free whisky Democracy of Macon county.

A GENTLEMAN, writing from the road regions of Pennsylvania to the Philadelphia Times, says: Kearny may possibly cause trouble by encouraging the men to commit some bold acts; but as to general results he adds: "His coming will prove to these other men who are mere theorists that they are exand that beside this they must drop into insignificance, because he represents the vitality of this whole movement, and that vitality—the vital principle of the whole business—is nothing else than communism. That is the bottom block."

A conversation with Democrats and Republicans from various sections of the county, it is the general expression that the old party lines will be closely adhered to this fall. Democrats from the country tell us that hardly a man of their party will vote the prohibition ticket and from several townships we have heard the statement that not a single Democratic vote can be obtained for this ticket. Republicans are fast finding out that the Democracy do not propose to carry temperance into politics, and as a consequence they do not intend to have their votes on a ticket that cannot carry a township in the county.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The nomination of Hiram Ward for sheriff by the Democratic convention yesterday, took nobody by surprise, unless it might have been some of his defeated competitors—since every indication for some days past has pointed to that event.

The heads of messes, the managers, the chiefs of tens and the leaders of fifties had seemingly all settied down to the conviction that Ward was the most available material they had, and that all others must be sacrificed. Of Mr. Ward it is but just to say that he is a citizen of good repute, who has attained some degree of prominence by reason of his connection with the board of supervisors for a number of years. His main and only claim to public recognition lies in this one fact, and this is liable to prove his greatest weakness. During the canvass his votes and actions as a member of the board will be closely scrutinized, and when the glaring light of a hotly contested campaign is thrown upon them it is not improbable that they may turn out to be a source of great annoyance to him in his pursuit of office. The campaign will show whether Mr. Ward, by his record in the board, has proven himself worthy to be called to a higher place in the gift of the people.

John Dineen, the candidate for coroner, is almost as well known as any one of our citizens of Irish birth, and stands fairly among the people. His nomination was an exceedingly transparent odge to conciliate the Irish element of the party, who have been grumbling andably for some time on account of their treatment. It will hardly suffice to heal the breach, for the Irish will not be slow to realize that the sop thrown to them is of a very ingenuous character, when compared with the votes they have been ungrudgingly giving to the party during the past score or more of years.

Properly considered the ticket is a weak one, and if Forstmyer and Frank Haines don't "get away with it" easily, then all signs point for tonight.

THE YELLOW FEVER

The Republicans of the sixteenth

Congressional District held their convention at Vandalia yesterday, and nominated Hon. Basil B. Smith, of Salem. Mr. Smith was the candidate two years ago, and was beaten by Sibley, the majority for the latter being 1800.

Smith's way to be condemned, but he has about half a dozen opponents, and at the convention held two weeks ago he failed to secure the necessary number of votes. This convention was a most remarkable one, 350 ballots being cast, but a clause, when no adjournment was made, was adopted upon the call of the chairman.

The convention met to-day, and none has since been issued. The Democracy are consequently very badly demoralized, and Mr. Smith, who is an excellent man in every way, has some chance of an election.

The convention yesterday was successfully held by a mass meeting, which was addressed by Senator Ogleby and Gen.

Logan.

The Democratic convention for the Nineteenth district met at Cairo yesterday, and renominated Hon. R. W.

Tucker.

WHY WAS THE WAR ABOUT?

One half of all the men we meet, between the ages of thirty and fifty, served, for longer or shorter terms, in the cause of the Union. The fact is not that thought of. The old soldiers are quiet and untroubling. They seldom speak of the days when they marched and fought, suffered and endured for their country. On the march days they gather at the cemeteries and strew flowers on the graves of the comrades by whose side they fought, whose danger they shared, and whose fate they stood ready, if need be, to meet. But the old veterans seldom refer to the days of trial when they stood alike a wall of fire between their country and desolation. There are so many soldiers in the land that the people fail to regard them as heroes. In truth it has become somewhat the fashion to decry the old soldiers, to look upon them as a burden and a curse.

Our member of the Social Labor

Union said his committee would be present to-morrow, when many questions not thoroughly answered by Rock would be answered to the better satisfaction of the committee and working men.

Hugh McGregor, one of the committee consisting of Justus Schwab, F.

Brunch and himself, then addressed the committee on the subject of government collecting statistics of the laboring classes and arranged them so they could be readily referred to.

The chairman of this delegation thought he would not take oath to his statements, because he did not believe in a so-called "ever living and true God." He was then asked how he could expect the government to enforce

Force others to testify under oath as to the way they conducted their private business.

McGregor then retired and Justus Schwab, Communist, said he would present his case to-morrow.

A representative of granite cutters attributed the depression in trade to the contract system and machinery. He said he was discharged from government work in Albany for verifying bids and that he was kept at work there who were not skilled workmen

The Republicans of Macon County, in convention, comprising the 8th Senatorial District, are requested to send delegates to the Senatorial and Representative Convention, to be held at Decatur, Aug. 6, 1872.

Tuesday, August 6th, 1872.

At one o'clock p.m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Senator and two candidates for Representatives. The number of delegates to which each county will be entitled will be as follows:

Macon, 12.

DeKalb, 10.

Other counties, 6 each.

The New York Tribune says that a Democrat "leads

The Production organ of the convention that met at the court house yesterday, as the free whisky Democrat of Macon county.

A GENTLEMAN, writing from the coal regions of Pennsylvania to the Philadelphia Times, says: Kearney may possibly cause trouble by encouraging the miners to commit some treacherous acts; but as to general results he adds: "His coming will prove to these other men who are mere theorists that they are so, and that besides this they must drop into insignificance, because it represents the vitality of this whole movement, and that vitality - the vital principle of the whole business - is nothing else than communism. ## CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRY.

The Republicans of the sixteenth Congressional District held their convention at Vandalia yesterday, and nominated Hon. Basil B. Smith, of Salem. Mr. Smith was the candidate two years ago, and was beaten by Sibley, the majority for the latter being 1,910. Sibley was to be renominated, but has about half a dozen opponents, and at the convention held two weeks ago he failed to secure the necessary number of votes. This convention was a most remarkable one, 320 ballots being cast about a chair, when an adjournment was voted.

The convention called another convention to meet September 2d, but on the next day the call was withdrawn and none has since been issued. The Democracy are consequently very badly demoralized, and Mr. Smith who is an excellent man in every way has some chance of election.

The convention yesterday was succeeded by a mass meeting, which was addressed by Senator Ogleby and Gen. Logan.

The Democratic convention for the Nineteenth district met at Cairo yesterday, and renominated Hon. R. W. Tuckwood.

WHAT WAS THE WAR ABOUT?

tween the ages of thirty and fifty, are old, for longer or shorter terms, in the service of the Union. The fact is not doubt thought of. The old soldiers are quiet and unobtrusive. They seldom

by whose side they fought, when dan

times of trial when they stood side by side in the land that the people fail to remember as heroes. In truth it has become somewhat the fashion to deride their deeds; to look upon them as amiable, but weak-minded individuals who did not know any better than to sacrifice themselves for others. If their hopes are mentioned, it is scarcely suggested that it is best not to flaunt the bloody shirt. If their patriotism is praised, the reference is sarcastically denominated as "sentimentalism." In truth the private soldiers of the war are so completely ignored that were they less brave, less patriotic, less noble, they would resent the insult. They know that all the peace, prosperity and happiness the country enjoys were won by their sacrifice, yet they never refer to the fact. They see rebel Brigadiers in the halls of Congress, yet they are abiding and do not protest. They see their hard-earned triumphs sacrificed one by one, yet they are patient and abide by the laws. Not half a generation has passed since the war cloud lifted and revealed the completest triumph ever won. Not half a generation has passed, and of the million veterans who came marching home, how many are greatly remembered? There are generals and colonels by the score in every county, brave men and true, who won their honors bravely and have been pushed to the front, but who honor the thousands of privates, equally brave and true? They are tilling the soil, working at the anvil and forge, or in other callings doing an honest man's work in a manly way, despite the fact that their great deeds are seemingly for gotten and their services ignored.

tee consisting of Justus Schwab, F.

tages and disadvantages of the eight hour law in which Mr. Rock was often stions not thoroughly answered by Rock

faction of the committee and working

He was then asked how he

Some discussion ensued on the advan

winded.

One member of the Social Labor

CITY DEPARTMENT.

A new name of the wild West, from the 1st to the 30th of July, 1861.

The Blondes is a new name of the wild West, in the field, as roll up your sleeves and pitch in.

Two elegant Little Blondes

Mosquitos are getting bloodthirsty, and people will do well to put up the bars good and strong.

Taylor's buck makes more connections with all trains. Leave orders at Armstrong's.

Ames & Co. are daily receiving the latest styles of carpet goods, and keep a full line of mats and rugs, also, the finest stock of wall paper in central Illinois.

Have you heard of the mighty Little Blondes?

Wednesday afternoon the mercury went up to 90 in Mr. J. H. Kline's signal service thermometer.

On Wednesday evening 200 and 400 inches of water fell by actual measure made by the tool provided by the signal service.

The Oconomowoc Club met last evening at the residence of Mrs. Mayo, on North Water street, for reorganization and preview.

Steve Brink keeps the park in apple pie order. The basin is kept clear of scum and filth, and the lawns have constantly a smooth shave.

By noon overnight the votes cast for John Henry Myers in the democratic convention yesterday were not counted.

Look well to your doors and windows, or you may find yourself minus your best coat some morning. The "boys" are around.

The dogs have no respect whatever for the city ordinance prohibiting travel upon the grass in the park. They roll and tumble about with perfect impunity, except when Bird can get a chance at them with a brickbat.

Don't forget the Niagara Falls excursion on Tuesday, August 11th. Such a chance to visit the far-famed Falls occurs but seldom.

The large number of loads of tile being taken to the country indicates to what extent farmers are tiling their farms this season. The advantages of tiling are said to be sufficient to pay for the tile in a single year.

Don't fail to call on R. C. Crocker when you want hardware, hardware, stoves, table or pocket cutlery, where you will always find a full supply of superior goods at prices which cannot be discounted here or elsewhere. Be sure and call before purchasing.

The Central Illinois Annual Conference of the U. S. Church will convene in this city in September, and will continue about five days. About seventy-five ministers will be in attendance, and Bishop Weaver, of Dayton, O., will preside.

The general prediction that cool weather follows an eclipse does not seem to be fulfilled this time, as it has been constantly warm since Monday, the mercury not having been below 85 in the day time since that day.

A fine hotel building, covering a part or entire, the block of ground north of the park, would be an ornament to Decatur, and if well-kept would be a help to the town. Let us have the hotel if we can get it.

The Oakley delegation to the Democratic county convention reached the city just in time to be too late, the convention having adjourned a few minutes before their arrival. The cause of their delay was a belated train—three hours behind time.

At Monmouth, the first station north of Decatur, the wind of Wednesday gave things a lively shaking up, but no serious damage was done before tearing some boards from corn cribs and limbs from trees. Some fences that were not very strong, suffered more or less, but they will be easily righted up.

"I want, and will have a wife without a failing," was the remark of a young man who had three seasons' experience of life. His sister, with only a country girl's philosophy, remarked, "Then you will never marry, because, should you find such a woman, she'll be sure to want a husband of the same character."

We have made diligent inquiry of the farmers as to the extent of the damage done to corn by the storm of Wednesday night, and from all that we can learn it is evident that the injury will be comparatively slight, and the most of that which was blown down will straighten up again.

A gentleman who attempted to board the westward bound passenger train after it had started yesterday afternoon fell between the car and the platform and had a very narrow escape from being killed. He was seized by a bystander and rescued from his perilous condition without a scratch. A worse frightened man in seldom seen than was he.

It is suggested, and probably with much truth, that the tiling of country roads will improve them as much as tiling in paved land. The load on the two sides of the road, with the wagon path well piled up, would work wonders for the roads of Marion county, but without tiling labor expended upon roads is of but little use.

YESTERDAY was like Saturday in town. The country people were out in force, and the sidewalks presented an animated appearance. The rain of the night before made farm work impracticable, and lots of people who had no connection with the convention came in to see the fun.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—Last evening about half past ten, the number of twenty-four of Mrs. George Washington, perpetrated a surprise upon her at the residence of her lawyer, State's Attorney Buck Simpson, on West William street.—Miss Fannie was absent from home during the afternoon, and on her return in the evening, greatly to her surprise she found her young companion in possession of the house and property. Her quick perception took her in a situation at a glance, and though surprised, she was fully equal to the situation, and entertained her guest in the best style. The house was lighted up with oil lamps, and the house was illuminated, so that both could discern in everything the appearance of a festive occasion. The young people indulged in a variety of sports and games in doors and out, and their hearty, gleeful laugh ringing out upon the evening air, told how well they were enjoying themselves. Ice cream and other refreshments were served at a proper time, and at a reasonable hour the visitors retired from the scenes of their festivities delighted with the evening's entertainment.

COURT COACH.—We understand that it is the general wish of attorneys to have a short term of court in August, and to this end they are agreeing among themselves to continue cases on the civil docket except such as cannot properly be referred to the Decatur term without damage to the parties. The criminal dockets, though not as large as the civil terms of court, have several cases which if tried will consume considerable time. The disposition of this docket and such cases on the civil list as must be tried, will not be likely to be disposed of in two weeks, so that the probabilities are that we will get three or four weeks of court this term.

BARNUM'S GIGANTIC SHOW ON FAIR.

On Tuesday next occurs the great event of the season. Barnum with his immense show is to be here, and of course everybody will be out to see him. The New York Independent, in speaking of the great showings exhibited in that city holds the following language:

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—Our report of the Democratic county convention yesterday closed with the nominations for sheriff and coroner. The convention afterwards selected seventeen delegates to the legislative convention. Some thirteen nominations were made, the twelve named below were selected elected, the figures opposite their names showing the number of votes received by each:

Wm. M. Boyd, 46, R. L. Perry, 35, C. A. Ewing, 42, A. Staudemar, 31, J. N. Hoyt, 37, E. McElroy, 45, A. T. Davis, 36, J. W. Brown, 38, John Trainer, 43, J. T. Clough, 41, John H. Miller, 32, S. G. Cooley, 26.

George Washington Jones, of Pike, candidate for clerk of the appellate court being present, was invited to come forward and "show himself." He complied, and a right good show he made—there being a good deal of him. He said he was a candidate, and expected to be elected. He promised to do his duty when elected, and, being a worthy namesake of the great wielder of the little hatchet, we are not disposed to doubt his word.

Mr. Roberts, of 18th, offered a resolution relating to the organization of the party, which, being copied from the Republican plan of organization, was about the best thing of the afternoon. The resolution was adopted and the convention then adjourned.

THE BON-TON.

Mr. Jacob Wilhelmy, one of Cincinnati's best tonorial artists, has opened out at Henley & Wolff's old stand the toniest tailor shop ever established in this city. The room has been newly papered and calimbered, and the front re-painted. Three of Cather's famous reclining chairs are presented over by Mr. Wilhelmy, Frank Reiley and another favorite tailor. Three fine marble top walnut dressing tables, and mirrors, finished off in the thinnest style, adorn the east side of the room. The furniture cost at wholesale prices over $600. Everything is neat and clean about the place, and the public is invited to give the Bon-Ton a share of its patronage. It is conveniently located and should receive a liberal support.

In the scenes, the German is a pedant, the Englishman a philosopher, the Frenchman a smatterer, the Italian a professor, and the Spaniard a grave thinker.

In Germany the princes, in England the ships, in France the court, in Italy the churches, in Spain the armories, are magnificent.

MILESTONES ON THE ROAD TO HEALTH.

The recovery of digestion and the reumption of activity by the liver, bowels and kidneys are milestones which mark our progress on the road to health. They speedily become perceptible when Hosier's Stomach Bitters is used by the invalid.

Nothing so surely and expeditely conveys the distance to the desired goal. As no bodily function can suffer interruption without impairing the general health of the system, so the system can never acquire perfect vigor, health's synonym, until that function be actively renewed. Take, for instance, digestion, a suspension of which is invariably rectified by the Bitters. If the organ upon which it devolves grows weak, balloonose, constipated, headache, poverty of blood and a hundred other symptoms supervene, which indicate unimpaired but the baneful general influence of dyspepsia. The disappearance of all these symptoms through the use of the Bitters shows with what thoroughness it removes the cause.
